Alumnus John Freed, AA'12 graduated from Rhodes State College on June 9, 2012, and the next day graduated from The Ohio State University with a B.S. in Middle Childhood Education. Freed started at Rhodes State out of high school in 2007. He planned to take Rhodes general education classes and transfer to complete a bachelor degree in education. Working with advisors from both Rhodes and Ohio State Lima, he was able to dual-enroll and take Rhodes courses to fulfill many OSU requirements and complete the Associate of Arts degree. Early Childhood Education courses, Anatomy & Physiology and "Literature and the Holocaust" are examples of his varied course load. Reflecting back, Freed mentioned the great teachers and wonderful support he got at Rhodes.

Shortly after graduation, Freed moved from "Help Desk" student worker to full-time Instructional Technology Technician. While serving in this position, he completed a Master of Education from OSU. His intended teaching path was social studies and language arts, but he currently serves as a Technology Integration Specialist for Allen East Schools, where he enjoys training staff and expanding educational experiences through technology.

John is the son of Kathy Freed, SEC'81 and brother to Andrew Freed, ECE'14.

Alumna Kathi Stephens, OAE'07 joined the Rhodes State staff, in a part-time support position, the day before her graduation. She advanced to a full-time position in the Academic Success Center (formerly the Learning Center) and currently is the Office Specialist for Academic Affairs. Having started college in her 30's, she remembers the challenge of balancing coursework and family responsibilities. She appreciated the people who encouraged her and enjoys being a resource for others. The best part of working at Rhodes, according to Kathi, is being a part of something that makes a difference in other people's lives.

Kathi met her husband, Aaron Stephens, MET'11 in the Academic Success Center. As a dislocated worker returning to college, he took advantage of the tutoring services. He found the services so helpful that he later "returned the favor" and served as a tutor while completing his Mechanical Engineering Technology degree. Aaron is now an Equipment Service Technician for Celina Aluminum Precision Technology (CAPT). Kathi and Aaron live in Harrod; they have two children and two grandchildren.

A Focus on Arts & Sciences

The Arts & Sciences Division is the backbone of all Rhodes State College academic programs. Each major requires courses in math, humanities, as well as physical, biological, social and behavioral sciences. These courses provide the background, skills, insights and breadth of knowledge pertinent to students, their employers and their community.

In 2008, Rhodes State began offering Associate of Arts and Associate of Science degrees, a pathway toward a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree from a four-year college or university. The degree requirements include a minimum of 62 credit hours (including 41 credit hours in Arts & Sciences and Computer Literacy) plus a concentration of courses in Business, Pre-Health, Psychology, Education, English Writing/Literature, History, or Sociology. The mix of courses depends on the intended major of the student and requirements of the transfer institution. Rhodes State College academic advisors are available to guide the students through the process.

Ohio Department of Higher Education Credit Transfer Initiative - The State of Ohio has developed a comprehensive credit transfer system including the Ohio Transfer Module (OTM), a subset or complete set of a public college or university general education requirements, and Transfer Assurance Guides (TAGs), which are courses guaranteed to transfer and apply directly to the major requirements. Knowing in advance that courses taken at one of Ohio's public institutions will transfer around the state gives students the flexibility of accumulating credits at a lower cost prior to transferring to a four-year university. To learn how courses transfer, click here.

Familiar Faces in the Arts & Sciences Division - Alumni may remember these full-time faculty members who have been teaching at Rhodes for more than 25 years: Humanities - Dr. Sally Angel, Mr. Tom Beery, Dr. John Fallon, Mr. Sean Lause'; Mathematics - Mr. Rodney Null, Dr. Will Wells and Ms. Judy Giffin have retired from full-time teaching, but still teach some courses.

College Credit Plus (CCP) Offers Early College Credits - College Credit Plus was established by the Ohio Board of Regents to allow Ohio students to earn college credit while still in high school. Rhodes State College is proud to partner with high schools to offer courses at the high schools, in addition to on-campus and on-line courses that are open to all CCP students. Interested students must notify their school by April 1 and complete the college application process. Contact Kitt Horn, Director at 419-995-8423 or by email for more information. #GivingTuesday Goal Exceeded - On Nov. 29, 2016, Rhodes State launched its first #GivingTuesday fundraising effort, a national movement to celebrate giving. An anonymous donor agreed to match up to $2,500 of the #GivingTuesday gifts. The match was met and an additional $1,727 was collected for a total of $6,727. Thank you to everyone who made gifts as a part of this effort!
